

Solace Consulting Inc. is recruiting a Senior Agreement Specialist. This specialist will be responsible for working on behalf of telecommunication carriers in the developing relationships with commercial property owners, landlords and property managers as well municipal government and utilities in order facilitate obtaining various types of approvals and agreements for the use of infrastructure as well as the access to land, buildings and structures. Interested applicants should forward their cover letter and resume to robin.comfort@solaceconsultinginc.com

Skills of the Senior Agreements Specialist include:

- Demonstrated negotiation skills.
- Ability to develop productive working relationships with others.
- Excellent interpersonal and communications skills (verbal and written).
- Strong project management experience, detail oriented in providing comprehensive reporting.
- Experienced in effectively coordinating and executing multiple tasks simultaneously and efficiently while working with conflicting priorities in a fast-paced environment.
- Working knowledge of Canadian Regulatory framework (CRTC) and of telecommunication industry in Canada.
- Self-motivated with the ability to take initiative in identifying problems and providing possible solutions. Monitors own work for quality.
- Strong understanding of all Microsoft Office applications.